Achieving the target plan investments

4362. SHRIMATI CHANDRIKA ABHINANDAN JAIN : Will the Minister of PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware that four states are the top defaulters in achieving the targeted plan investment for 1992-93 and 1993-94;

(b) if so, the names of the States which are major defaulters in plan investments;

(c) the main reasons for not utilising the plan investments as per the allocation of their annual plan-outlay;

(d) what is the position in context to plan investments of Maharashtra and Gujarat;

(e) what action has been taken by the Planning Commission or to be taken against the States which have been major defaulters in 1991-92, 1992-93 and 1993-94 ;

(f) the extent to which their plan outlay has been reduced for 1993-94, 1994-95; and

(g) the details theieof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI GIRIDHAR GOMANGO): (a) to (g) After the Annual Plan outlay of a State is approved in consultation with the State Government, it may be revised subsequently for various reasons including shortfall in reasources. Details indicating the approved plan outlays of all the States, including Maharashtra and Gujarat for 1992-93 and 1993-94 as well as revised outlays in these two years, is given in Annexure. [See Appendix 170, Annexure 84]. Several States had to seek revision in their plan outlays in these two years on account of shortfall in their own contribution to plan funding and lower utilisation of external aid for projects.

The Planning Commission has always impressed upon the States the need to make more contribution towards plan financing by way of additional resource mobilisation, improvement in the working of State level public enterprises, economy in expenditure, improved collection of small savings etc.
